

UKTA CONSTITUTION

1. THE ORGANISATION

- 1.1 The name of the organisation is the United Kingdom Thermography Association (UKTA).
- 1.2 The UKTA is a not-for-profit association.
- 1.3 The purpose of the UKTA is to support and encourage the development of professional thermography practise.

2. OBJECTIVES

- 2.1 The primary objective of the UKTA is to support and promote thermography applications in the UK by providing a forum covering matters relating to the science and practise of thermography within industry sectors.
- 2.2 The UKTA Committee will recognise Training Organisations which meet its criteria to demonstrate the provision of training and/or certification in thermography is to a standard of competency appropriate to the applicable industry sector.
- 2.3 The UKTA aims to contribute to consultations on matters pertaining to thermography applications.
- 2.4 The UKTA aims to contribute to the development of standards and regulations pertaining to thermography applications.
- 2.5 The UKTA aims to develop useful and practical online resources pertaining to explanation of thermography applications, training and certification for the benefit of all stakeholders.

3.0 MEMBERSHIP

- 3.1 The UKTA is open to members worldwide.
- 3.2 There are three types of individual Membership:
 - a) Full Membership is for practising thermographers who meet the training and accreditation criteria listed on the UKTA training page. Each Professional Member has one vote. Each Professional Member may purchase one entry in the UKTA Find A Thermographer service which is a free online search for those looking to appoint a qualified thermographer. Each Professional Member who undertakes training may also purchase an entry on the training page of the UKTA website subject to meeting the criteria in 2.2.
 - b) Provisional Membership is for students or any thermographer not yet meeting the criteria for a Professional Member. Each Provisional Member has one vote.
 - c) Interested Party Membership is for beneficiaries and commissioners of thermography services. There is no vote for an Interested Party Member.
- 3.3 There is one type of Corporate Membership:

- a) Corporate Membership is available to organisations who conduct business within the thermography industry. A Corporate Member has one vote and must nominate a person within its organisation to cast its vote. Each Corporate Member who undertakes training may also purchase an entry on the training page of the UKTA website.
- 3.4 The membership subscription criteria and eligibility and listing criteria for Find a Thermographer and the training page, along with subscription and listing fees will be decided annually by the UKTA Committee.
- 3.5 Membership subscriptions are notified and gathered via an electronic invoice. Invoices for membership renewal will be issued up to two months prior to renewal. Invoices for new members will be issued throughout the year.
- 3.6 The subscription year is 1st January to 31st December. Membership applications received on or after 1st July will be charged half subscription. The whole subscription rate will then be applicable at annual renewal.
- 3.7 Membership of the UKTA requires the storing of personal data.
- 3.8 The UKTA membership application form is available for download from the homepage of the UKTA website. Applications from prospective Professional members will require evidence that the training criteria have been met.
- 3.9 Membership will commence upon receipt of subscription payment and by the issue of a membership logo and membership number. The UKTA logo will state the type of membership and the year of membership.
- 3.10 A member can resign at any time by giving written notice to the UKTA Committee and any subscription paid or listing fee in the Find A Thermographer service or on the training page of the website will be forfeited.
- 3.11 The UKTA Committee reserves the right to resign a member whose subscription is more than three months in arrears.
- 3.12 Until 31st December 2025 Professional Members wishing to be listed in Find A Thermographer or on the training page of the UKTA website will be added in the order of joining the UKTA after which the order and search options will be reviewed by the UKTA Committee to enhance ease of use of the service whilst supporting members fairly.
- 3.13 All members are expected to act in accordance with the UKTA Statement of Ethical Principles.
- 3.14 The UKTA Committee will investigate unacceptable behaviour, including racist, sexist or inflammatory remarks or any other matter which it believes to be offensive or discriminatory or is contrary to the Statement of Ethical Principles or the Objectives of the UKTA. The member concerned will have the right attend a hearing undertaken by the UKTA Committee and accompanied by a colleague. The decision of the UKTA Committee is final.
